INDIAN INSTITUTES OF TECHNOLOGY JOINT ENTRANCE EXAMINATION 2010 (JEE-2010)

For admission to undergraduate courses at IITs, Bhubaneswar, Bombay, Delhi, GandhiNagar, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Indore, Kanpur, Kharagpur, Madras, Mandi, Patna, Punjab, Rajasthan, Roorkee, IT-BHU Varanasi, ISM Dhanbad.

Date of Examination
April 11, 2010 (Sunday)
Paper 1 : 09:00-12:00 hrs.	Paper 2 : 14:00-17:00 hrs

Admission to the undergraduate programme in all the above institutes is only through a Joint Entrance Examination (JEE). There will be two question papers, each of three hours duration in JEE-2010. Both the question papers would consist of three separate sections on Chemistry, Mathematics and Physics. Questions in these papers will be of objective type. The detailed syllabus is available on the websites of all IITs and in the Information Brochure of JEE-2010. You can opt for Question Papers either in English or in Hindi.

- ELIGIBILITY: You must make sure that you satisfy all the eligibility conditions given below for appearing in JEE-2010:

Date of Birth:

Candidates belonging to GE, OBC and DS categories must be born on or after October 01, 1985 and those belonging to SC, ST and PD categories must be born on or after October 01, 1980.

Year of Passing Qualifying Examination (QE):

Must have passed the Qualifying Examination, namely, XII standard or any equivalent examination, after 1st October 2008 or in the year 2009 or will be appearing in 2010.

Minimum Percentage of Marks in QE:

Candidates belonging to GE, OBC and DS categories must secure atleast 60% and candidates belonging to SC, ST and PD categories must secure atleast 55% marks in aggregate in the Qualifying Examination.

▪ Important Notes:

- (i) You can attempt JEE only twice, in consecutive years. That means you should have attempted JEE for the first time in 2009 or will be appearing in 2010.
- (ii) If you have accepted admission after qualifying in JEE in earlier years by paying full fees at any of the IITs, IT-BHU, Varanasi or ISM, Dhanbad, you will not be eligible to write JEE at all, irrespective of whether or not you joined in any of the programmes.

▪ RESERVATION OF SEATS:

For SC & ST candidates, respectively 15% & 7.5% seats are reserved in each programme in all the IITs, IT-BHU, Varanasi and ISM, Dhanbad. Some candidates belonging to these categories who do not qualify in JEE-2010, may be offered admission to the Preparatory Course of one-year duration provided

- (i) Seats are available,
- (ii) Candidates satisfy minimum norms,
- (iii) Candidates have not undergone the Preparatory Course earlier. Candidates successfully completing the Preparatory Course will be offered direct admission to the first year in the academic year 2011-2012. For details, please refer to the information brochure or IIT websites.

For OBC candidates belonging to non-creamy layer, 27% seats are reserved in each programme in all the IITs, IT-BHU, Varanasi and ISM, Dhanbad. Candidates belonging to this category are admitted on the basis of a relaxed criterion.

For candidates with physical disability (PD), including leprosy-cured candidates, and who are otherwise fit to pursue the course, 3% seats are reserved in each of the categories (viz., GE, OBC, SC and ST). Candidates in this category are also admitted under relaxed norms. In case the reserved seats are not filled, a limited number of PD candidates are admitted to a Preparatory Course of one year duration on the basis of a further relaxation. Two seats in each Institute are preferentially allotted to children of defense/ paramilitary personnel killed or permanently disabled in action during war or peacetime operations (DS) and who qualify in the General Category.
